

Terms & Conditions

Payment

A 50% deposit is required before any photography begins; this can be on the day of the service. Credit cards are accepted. Products are delivered within 48 hours once full payment has been received.

Copyright

The photographer retains the copyright and ownership of all products and retains the right to redistribute the products at their discretion but agrees not to use such products in any way that interferes with your rights. Alteration, manipulation, or distortion of any of our images and deliverables is strictly prohibited.

License to Use

Once paid in full the client is granted a license to use the products for the duration of the listing to be used by the agent and the agent's parent company for marketing purposes including multiple listing services.

Third Parties

Distribution of the products to third parties, including but not limited to, architects, builders, stagers, designers, sellers or buyers is strictly prohibited. Should anyone ask for any rights or usage of such products, you agree to refer them to Eurovision Images.

Cancellations

Any shoot cancelled within 24 hours is subject to a $50 cancellation fee. If a property is not ready it will be considered a cancellation or photographed as-is.

Agent's Responsibility

The agent agrees to coordinate with the property owner to ensure a safe environment for the photographer to work, access to the property is assured, and should emphasize the importance of a clean uncluttered environment. A checklist is available on this site.

